

School Partnership Manager (QLD)

To meet the growing need for school wellbeing programs and demand for TRP curriculum in Australia, we are seeking a motivated, enthusiastic and passionate educator to support our School Programs in Queensland.

- Full-time
- 12-month contract (with opportunity for extension)
- Working remotely/from home in greater Brisbane area
- Regular travel to schools in QLD metro/regional areas and the Melbourne office

About TRP

The Resilience Project (TRP) purpose is to “inspire happiness and change lives”. We teach positive mental health strategies to help people become happier and more resilient.

Through education and workplace programs, podcasts, events, the TRP app and wellbeing journals we share the benefits of gratitude, empathy and mindfulness and simple ways to practise these to support positive mental health.

We have delivered programs to over 1,500 schools around the country and worked with many elite sporting teams, including the Australian cricket, netball and soccer teams, NRL and AFL clubs.

Life at TRP

At TRP, we are driven to have an impact through everything we do. We are guided by our values - humble, inclusive, passionate, professional and curious - and aim to bring positivity to work every day.

We have a great team. We genuinely care about each other, love a bit of friendly banter and are always willing to help.

We have flexibility. We look after each other and the people that are important to us. That's why we provide great flexibility to balance work and life.

We have autonomy. Our strong working relationships are centred around trust. We are outcomes driven, believe in our abilities and trust each other to deliver.

About the role

To meet the growing need for school wellbeing programs and demand for TRP curriculum, we are seeking a motivated, enthusiastic and passionate educator to support the growth of our School Programs.

You will be the key link with schools to support program implementation and delivery, predominantly within Queensland. An integral part of the role is the facilitation of a variety of workshops with teachers and school leaders (both face to face and online), to build knowledge and capacity, so that they are able to run a successful program within their school.

The role will have a focus on both strategic thinking and operational execution. Through this role, you will have a unique opportunity to positively impact the mental health and wellbeing of thousands of students, parents/carers and whole school communities.

What will you be doing?

- Presentations & Workshops - Deliver and facilitate workshops in person and remotely that focus on building capacity and supporting teachers delivery of the program
- Relationship Management - Build strong relationships and provide ongoing support to key contacts at Partnership Schools to enable best-practice program implementation
- Program operations - Manage the onboarding of new schools and the retention process for existing schools from year to year
- Program administration - Maintain a detailed profile and overview of the progress and experience of your school allocation

About You

We are looking for someone who shares the TRP values and is passionate about our purpose to “inspire happiness and change lives”.

You’ll need to thrive in a fast-paced, dynamic environment, be driven to achieve outcomes, proactively lend a helping hand and bring a positive, can-do attitude to your work.

Our ideal candidate will also have:

- A strong interest in mental health and passion for helping people
- Able to build great relationships with a diverse range of people
- Willing to travel regularly to regional and interstate locations
- High level of organisational and administrative capabilities and the capacity to successfully manage competing priorities, maintain attention to detail and meet deadlines

What skills/experience are we looking for?

- At least 3 years of experience working as a teacher in a Queensland school setting
- Excellent stakeholder management skills and the ability to develop capacity in the teachers responsible for program implementation

- Strong presentation skills and ability to deliver to a range of audiences, particularly other teachers and educators
- Excellent verbal, written, and interpersonal communication skills and demonstrated ability to effectively collaborate and communicate with a range of people
- Well-developed strategic thinking, problem solving and decision-making skills
- Proven ability to use initiative and work autonomously as well as work productively as part of a team
- Strong understanding of the Australian and Queensland curriculum frameworks
- School leadership experience is preferred, but not essential.

Interested?

If this opportunity sounds like the right fit for you, please click on the following link to submit your application before 9am, Tuesday 1st October.

Click here to apply

If you have any specific questions about this opportunity, please contact Emma at emma@simplyhr.net.au.